ARTICLE I -- NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Lutheran Women's Missionary League English District (hereinafter referred to as LWML District), a subordinate organization of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (hereinafter referred to as LWML), is an integrated auxiliary of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (hereinafter referred to as LCMS).

ARTICLE II – OBJECT

The objective of this organization shall be

- a. to develop and maintain greater mission consciousness among the women of the English District through mission education, mission inspiration, and mission service;
- b. to gather funds for mission grants, especially those for which no adequate provision has been made in the English District or LCMS budgets.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERS

Section 1

- a. Women's organizations in the congregations of the English District of the LCMS shall be eligible for membership in the LWML English District.
- b. Women who hold membership in an LCMS congregation may form a group in a setting other than a congregation, a campus, or a resident home upon approval of the LWML District Executive Committee.
- c. Any woman who is a communicant member of her local congregation and who participates by promoting the object of the LWML may be considered a member of the group.
- d. Wherever a congregation has several women's groups affiliated with the LWML District, they shall be considered as one (1) unit.
- e. Individual membership is available to a woman in an LCMS congregation with or without a group affiliated with the LWML. Individual membership is not considered a group or a unit, nor does it confer voting privileges at the district level.

Section 2

Groups may make application for membership in the LWML by writing the LWML District President, providing that:

- a. the group has resolved to join the LWML;
- b. the local congregation has given its approval.

Section 3

A charter shall be issued upon approval of the LWML District Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV – ORGANIZATION

Section 1

- a. The district shall be divided into zones consisting of units of individual groups. The zone shall be determined by the LWML District Executive Committee and shall conform to English District LCMS circuit lines as nearly as possible.
- b. Where a unit is so far removed geographically that it is unable to participate in zone activities, it may function as a nonzone unit.

Section 2

- a. Each zone and each unit shall write its own bylaws, which shall conform to the object and principles of the LWML District bylaws. The zone and nonzone unit bylaws and subsequent amendments shall be submitted for approval to the LWML District Bylaws Committee.
- b. Each zone shall elect its officers at its spring rally.

Section 3

The zones shall:

- a. be represented at the biennial LWML convention by one accredited delegate from each zone having ten (10) or less units, and one additional delegate for each additional ten (10) units or a major fraction thereof, as of January 1st, preceding the convention, each delegate shall have an elected alternate;
- b. promote Christian fellowship and further the educational, spiritual, and service object of the LWML;
- c. serve as rally centers;
- d. allocate their mission offering share for mission purposes as resolved at their rallies;
- e. distribute Mite Boxes, gather the voluntary offerings, and remit to the LWML District Treasurer at least four (4) times per year.

ARTICLE V – CONVENTIONS AND REPRESENTATION

Section 1

- a. An LWML District convention shall be held biennially in even-numbered calendar years at a place determined by the convention.
- b. Invitations to host the succeeding biennial LWML District convention must be in the hands of the LWML District Executive Committee in sufficient time to be presented to the LWML District convention in session. Zones shall extend an invitation four (4) years prior to the proposed LWML District convention.
- c. The official call to the LWML District convention shall appear in the issue of the LWML District publication immediately prior to the LWML District convention.

Section 2

The voting body of the LWML District convention shall be:

- a. two (2) accredited delegates from each unit in membership;
- b. the voting members of the LWML District Executive Committee;
- c. the zone presidents or their representatives;
- d. one (1) member of each standing committee (except Equalization Committee) appointed by the vice president assigned to that committee;
- e. the Editor of the LWML District publication and the chairman of the Equalization Committee;
- f. past presidents of the LWML District.

Any LWML member is entitled to voice.

Section 3

A member of the voting body shall vote in one (1) capacity only. Proxy votes are prohibited.

Section 4

Each delegate to the LWML District convention shall have an elected alternate.

Section 5

- a. The names of the accredited delegates and alternates shall be in the hands of the LWML District President at least four (4) weeks prior to the LWML District convention.
- b. In the event neither the delegate nor the alternate is registered or able to serve, a member of the same unit may serve as delegate upon certification in writing by the LWML Zone President and presentation to the Credentials Chairman. In the case of nonzone units, a member of the same unit may serve as a delegate, upon certification in writing by the LWML District President and presentation to the Credentials Committee.
- c. A majority of the registered voting body who are present shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VI – OFFICERS

Section 1

The elected officers shall be:
